The Broadway High School Chorus

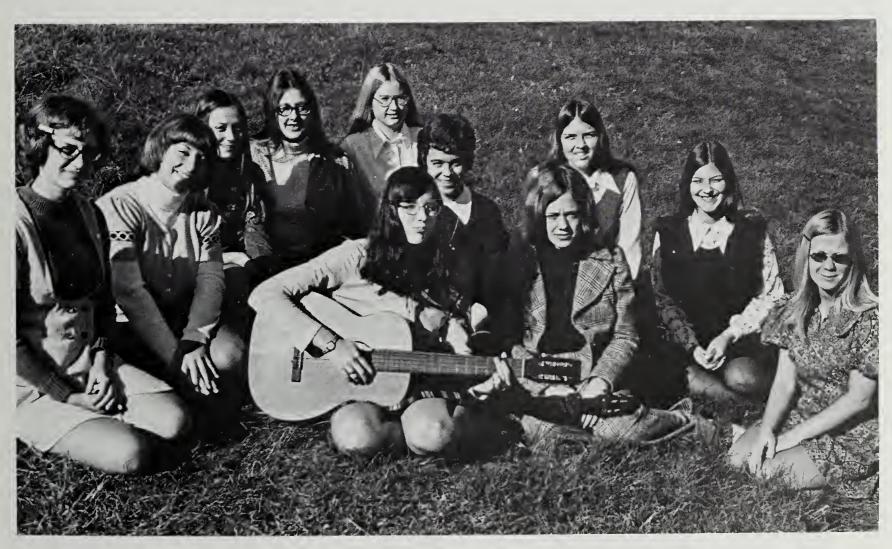

The Concert Chorus prepared two major programs this year. The Christmas program was canceled because of snow but was taped at WSVA and shown on television. The Spring Concert included selections from "Godspell." The Chorus also provided a program for the school during the second semester.

The director, Mrs. Brawley, and accompanists Sue Minnick, Brenda Hulvey, and Deanna Moyers look at a new piece of music.

First period Chorus trains underclassmen to be active members of the Concert Chorus.

Melody Ann members are Dawn Showalter, Michele Reed, Sue Kyger, Lenora Yutzy, Cindy Early, Nina Grisham, Cynthia Cline, Sharon Huffman, Diana Grimm, Deanna Moyers, and Robyn Runion.

Pep Band Members who play at pep rallies and football games are Yvette See, Christine Ray, Carolyn Campbell, Gloria Harrison, Marianne Todd, John Sproles, Beth Harrell, Mary Jo Wood, Charles Armentrout, Jan Clem, David Eton, Sarah Bowles, Phoebe Wood, Jeryl Turner, Eddie Sandy, David Blosser, Tammy Campbell, Janet Campbell, Joe Phillips, and Kenny Armentrout.

The Broadway High

The Broadway High School Band fulfills the functions of both a marching and concert band. The band regularly participates in the Christmas and Homecoming parades held in Broadway. The more important ones are the Christmas parade in Harrisonburg, the Friends of Feathers parade held in May, and the Veteran's parade in which the band placed third this year. During March the band participates in the District Festival, held at Madison College this year. Some students will be playing in Regional at Montevido. The highlight of the year is the Spring Concert, in which the Band and Chorus both participate. At this concert, the Seniors are recognized for being in the band four years.

Majorettes: Dixie Keller, Sharon L. Moyers, Shelia Foltz, June Baker, Donna Taylor, and Elaina Plogger.

School Band

Student Council

The Student Council Association annually plans the homecoming festivities, which this year included a parade, bonfire, and a dance in the cafeteria after the homecoming game. The Council's most notable accomplishment this year has been being accepted for membership in the state SCA.

SCA Officers: President, Noel Driver; Vice-President, Kathy Long; Secretary-Treasurer, Susan Huffman. Mr. Moyers is the adviser.

The VICA club's fund raising project this year was a candy sale. The employer — employee banquet each spring climaxes a year of hard work. The officers are President, Debbie Hinkle; Vice-President, Susan Roadcap; Secretary, Wanda Sheets; Student Adviser, Doug Alder; Parlimentarian, D.H. Atchison; Adviser, Mr. Lester Smith.

VICA

"Yesterday Once More" was the theme of the homecoming parade and the club's float based on the "Time Machine" won third place.

Eli Drama Club

A portion of the diverse talents of the drama club members is exhibited by this picture. Other great talents were seen this year in the double-casting of "The Marriage Proposal," and "The Wake," a religious drama presented for the One-Act Play Festival. Officers: President, Sharon Estep; Vice-President, Michele Reed; Secretary-Treasurer, Tracy Murray; Adviser, Mr. Ronnie Smith.

Library Club

Those students who are interested in assisting Mrs. Hollar, the librarian, in checking in and out books, finding research materials, and generally keeping the library straight, can work during their study hall. The library never seems lonely with all these willing students.

Future Farmers of America

The FFA fund raising activity was the sale of citrus fruit before Christmas. The club used the money from this project to help develop a park for "Building Our American Communities." The members built picnic tables and playground equipment for the park. The FFA annually repairs toys and fixes boxes for the needy at Christmas time.

FFA Officers: President, David Coffman; Vice President, David See; Secretary, Ronald Yankey; Treasurer, Dennis Combs; Reporter, Lowell Caplinger; Sentinel, Dwight Mongold; Adviser, Mr. Bill Diehl.

Lettermen's Club

Every year the special project of the club is raising money to buy green and white jackets for senior lettermen. The money for this project comes from selling popcorn, candy and drinks at football and basketball games.

Officers: President, Chuck Mathias; Vice-President, Walter McDaniel; Secretary-Treasurer, Marty Rhodes; Reporter, Steve McCready; Adviser, Mr. Tom Allebaugh.

The Arts and Crafts Bazaar held in September displayed many varied creations. Candles, needlework, Christmas ornaments, and food were sold in order for the club to carry out its projects.

Future Homemakers of America

FHA Officers: President, Karen Ward; Vice-President, Ann Armentrout; Secretary-Treasurer, Sherry Thompson; Reporters, Donna Ray, Sharon Harpine; Adviser, Mrs. Larri Bailey.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society started a school store this year to clear up congestion in the office. It operated on Tuesdays and Thursdays before school. School supplies such as paper, pens, and typing paper were sold. The Society also sponsored monthly projects, among them a dinner for retired citizens, a visit to the childrens' ward at the hospital, and a kite-flying contest. Officers are President, Bonnie Strawderman; Vice-President, Marty Rhodes; Secretary, Kathy Serrell; Treasurer, Susan Derrow. Mrs. Janet Hadley is the adviser.

The purpose of the art club is to relieve the tension of the members so that they can relax while engaging in their favorite artistic activities. The officers are President, Dana Hoover; Vice-President, Dennis Whetzel; Secretary, Sue Crosbie; Treasurer, Ann MacKenzie; Adviser, Mrs. Billie Campbell.

Art Club

The art room is not only the warmest room in the building but also the center for the art club's activities.

Future Business Leaders of America

The fund raising project of the FBLA was selling various merchandise from kits. The members also sold trash bags to help the March of Dimes.

Officers: President, Esther Dove; Vice-President, Dawn Showalter; Secretary, Cindy Spitzer; Treasurer, Earlene Ritchie; Reporter, Sue Getz; Historian, Penny Grogg; Adviser, Mrs. Viola Sager.

hed. These two teams should work together and supeach other since both represent Broadway High ool.

Boys' sports have been so important for so long, so don't think anything of going to a game and yelling relungs out for the boys to win; but it's still a really at accomplishment to get the boys to even attend a ale game.

A good bit of progress, however, has been made. as are beginning to plaster the halls with, "Girls beat" The Daily News-Record has given very generous coverage, both last year and this, to Broadway's "wonder girls." New uniforms for the varsity team were purchased recently, contrasted to the 20-year-old uniforms the J.V. players are wearing. Female pep rallies are finally beginning to appear. The Girls' Athletic Association has been formed as a rebuttal to the Letterman's Club.

Even with all this progress, though, whenever there is a question of who gets something, it seems the boys always win. The girls don't ask to be treated as superiors,

ent sightings are beginning to make people think. No knows for sure if UFO's are fact or fiction, this decin is left up to you.

Since the world did not end October 26 as Jean Dixon dicted, another prediction has been rumored. This diction states that the UFO mystery will be solved durdeer season. This prediction claims that a drunk hunwill shoot down an UFO thinking it was Rudolph the Nose Reindeer. This prediction will probably prove be as false as her original prediction.

And now for this issue's Watergate Joke. Barry Goldter stated that he is stressing prison reform. He feels it's his responsibility to help the Republicans any way he can.

In my next column, unless cancelled, I will announce next month's Cheapy Weekend winner. This lucky couple will travel to Harrisonburg to enjoy dinner for two at the bus terminal. Next, they will go to Madison College for a shower in the locker room. This beautiful weekend is highlighted by a picnic at Benny's Beach which includes imported ants from Australia.

So mail your cards today for this luxurious weekend.
